Indian Church History Classics (IHC) - Volume 2 :

The CATHOLICS

15 Church History Classics on India's Latin Catholics from their Most Remote History to their Glorious Achievements in Recent Centuries

Here are 15 of the most oft-quoted RESOURCE CLASSICS describing authentically the origins, history, culture, art, architecture, liturgy, theology, personalities, divisions and unions, spread, vicissitudes, and achievements of the remarkable Latin Christians of India claiming their origin from earlier centuries especially from the very arrival of the West on the Indian and the East Asian coasts, as well as their manifold contributions to Indian and World Christianity in particular and in general to Humanity at large. The publishers have added pleasure in fulfilling a long felt need of scholars, at a time when these Indian Catholic communities are becoming even more visible and more impressive in the universal Church.

The volume contains special introductions to each individual work/author by scholars who have devoted a lifetime to the study of these works dealing with the Catholics of the Indian Peninsula. The volume contains all the material in the original editions of these definitive works such as indices, prefaces, dedications, and introductions, in fact everything – uncut and unabridged – not omitting even the original printer's devils in the interests of greater authenticity.

Produced To The Specifications
Of The Best World-Class Libraries

Now for the first time all these well-known works are available in a single, compact, ENCYCLOPEDIA, volume, at a fraction of the price of these tomes if procured individually (if at all thus available), newly type-set in easy-to-read, modern type-faces, and printed in an attractive format, making use of the best available materials, craftsmanship, and printing technologies. In the giant pages of the present work measuring 9 in. by 12 in. you can now browse through or deeply study the complete story of these Christians and their relationship and contacts down the centuries with various civilizations and peoples across the Arabian Sea, across the Mediterranean Sea, and even across the Atlantic Ocean, hailing from the Iberian and Italian Peninsulas, the British, Scandinavian, Germanic, French, Benelux countries, and from the Americas, not to mention their interesting rendezvous with various races and cultures in India itself between the Himalayan mountain ranges and the Indian Ocean, and much beyond.

Lasting open-bound hard-cover library edition with Gold leaf printed and embossed front and spine with a glorious full colour jacket and a thick transparent "overall".

There are perhaps only a dozen or so usable copies of most of the reproduced works now available in the whole world. This volume is being brought out at 'the specific request of many libraries and scholars who would like to have their own complete, uncut copies of these rare books' in their collections. It provides a rare chance for institutions and faculties interested in research and for research guides and scholars, both at the Masters and the Doctoral levels, who have now to depend on short and often incorrect quotations from these works.

The Volume continues the publisher's well established and universally appreciated tradition of relevant and high quality photographs and other visuals.

Volume TWO Containing 15 complete books and very long extracts from 22 other works will be ready for delivery in August, 2012

IHC II : The Catholics

- A whole library containing 15 rare and costly books on Catholicism in India plus lengthy extracts from 22 more indispensable works.
- Detailed autographed introductions ranging from 1000 to 3000 words to each book plus a 10,000-word General Introduction all by noted authorities.
- Indices.
- Library bound with gold-leaf stamped and embossed cover and spine.

- Protective full-colour jacket and a transparent "overall".
- Over 1000 large size pages of 12" x 9" each containing more than a thousand words (much, much bigger than the huge first volume).
- More than 500 "First-ever" photographs, art reproductions and other visual aids - hundreds in glorious full colour - including many in the giant page size, dealing exhaustively with the artistic, architectural, cultural, biblical, liturgical, historical, archival, archaeological, cartographic, scientific, trade and finance related, commercial, educational, medical, social, ecumenical, inter-religious contributions of a community having perhaps no parallel in the whole of Christendom. Our teams of photographers covered all the Catholic centres in India many times to procure these fresh illustrations – not reproducing any of the 2000 odd visuals already printed in our previous publications, including maps, charts, lists, graphs, sketches,
